

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA

LAN TU TRINH,

Plaintiff,

v.

KATHLEEN LIEN TRINH,

Defendants.

CIVIL ACTION NO. 21-3595

ORDER

AND NOW, this 16th day of February 2022, upon consideration of Defendant's Motion to Dismiss [Doc. No. 3], Plaintiff's response thereto, and for the reasons set forth in the accompanying Memorandum Opinion, it is hereby ORDERED that Defendant's motion is GRANTED as follows:

1. To the extent that the Complaint alleges that Defendant engaged in an unconstitutional conspiracy with state actors against Plaintiff, such claims are DISMISSED without prejudice. If Plaintiff wishes to proceed with any claims alleging an unconstitutional conspiracy, Plaintiff may file an amended complaint by or before March 18, 2022 if she can correct the deficiencies noted in the accompanying Memorandum Opinion.
2. All other claims asserted in the Complaint are DISMISSED for lack of subject matter jurisdiction.
3. The Clerk of Court is directed to mark this case as CLOSED, pending the possible filing of an amended complaint.

It is so ORDERED.
